Autumn Woods.

Ere in the Northern gale
The Summer tresses of the trees are gone,
The woods of autumn, all around our vale,
Have put their glory on.
The mountains that unfold
In their wide sweep, the colored landscape round,
Seem groups of giant kings in purple and in gold,
That guard enchanted ground.

I roam the woods that crown
The upland, were the mingled splendors glow
Where the gay company of trees look down
On the green field below.
My steps are not alone
In these bright walks; the sweet southwest at play,
Flies, rustling, where the painted leaves are strewn
Along the winding way.
The rivulet, late unsee,
Where, clicking through the shrub, its waters run,
Shines with the image of its golden shade,
And glimmerings of the sun.

But 'neath yon crimson tree,
Lover to listening maid might breath his flame,
Nor mark, within its rosete canopy,
Her flush of maiden shame.
Oh, Autumn! why so soon
Depart the hues that make the forrest glad?
Thy gentle wind and thy fair sunny noon,
And leave thee wild and sad?

Ah! were a lot too blest
Forever in thy colored shades to stay;
Amid the hues of the soft southwest
To roam and dream for aye:
And leave the vain, low strife
That makes men mad—the fog for wealth and power;
The passions and the cares that wither life
And waste the little hour.

Selected Story.

Kitty's Forty.

BY EDWARD EGGLESTON

It doesn't do men any good to live apart from women and children. "I never knew a boys' school in which there was not a tendency to rowdyism. And lumbermen, sailors, fishermen and other men that live only with men are proverbially a half-bear sort of people. Frontiersmen soften down when women and children come—but I forgot myself, it is the story you want.

Burton and Jones live in a shanty by themselves. Jones was a married man, but could not support his wife in a down-east village, he had emigrated to Northern Minnesota, leaving his wife under her father's roof until he should be able to "make a start." He and Burton had gone into partnership and had "pre-empted" a town of 320 acres.

There were perhaps twenty families scattered sparsely over this town site to the time my story begins and ends, for its ends in the same week in which it begins.

The partners had disagreed, quarreled, and devided their interests. The land was all shared between them except one valuable forty acre piece. Each of them claimed that piece of land, and the quarrel had grown so high between them that the neighbors expected them to "shoot at sight." In fact, it was understood that Burton was on the forty acre piece, determined to shoot Jones if he came, and Jones had sworn to go out there and shoot Burton, when the fight was postponed by the unexpected arrival of Jones' wife and child.

Jones' shanty was not finished, and he was forced to forego the luxury of fighting his old partner, in his exertion to make wife and baby comfortable for the night. For the winter sun was surounded by "sun dogs." Instead of one sun there were four, occurrence not uncommon in this latitude, but one which always bodes a terrible storm.

In his indeavor to care for wife and child, Jones was mollified a little, and half regretted that he had been so violent about the peice of land. But he was determined not to be backed down, and would certainly have to shoot Burton or be shot himself.

When he thought of the chance of being killed by his old partner, the propect was not pleasant. He looked wistfully at Kitty, his two-year-old child, and dreaded that she should be left fatherless. Nevertheless he was not to be backed down. He would shoot or be shot.

While the father was busy cutting wood, and the mother was busy otherwise, little Kitty managed to get the shanty door open. There was no latch as yet, and her prying little fingers easily swung it back. A gust of cold air almost took her breath away, but she caught sight of the brown grass without, and the new world seemed so big that the little feet were fain to try and explore it.

She pushed out through the door, caught her breath again, and started a way down a path bordered by sere grass and the death stalks of wild flowers.

How often she had longed to escape from restraint and paddle out in the world alone! So out into the world she went, rejoycing in her liberty, in the blue sky above and the rusty prairie beneath. She would find out where the path went, and what there was at the end of the world. What did she care if her nose was blue with cold, and her chubby hands red as beets. Now and then she paused to turn her head way from a rude blast, a forerunner of the storm, but, having grasped a moment, she quickly renewed her brave march in search of the great unknown.

The mother missed her, but supposed that Jones, who could not get enough of the child's society, had taken the little pet out with him.

Jones, poor fellow, sure that the darling was safe within, chopped away until that awful storm broke upon him, and at last drove him half-smothred by snow half frozen with cold, into the house. When there was nothing left but retreat, he had seized an armful of wood and carried it into the house with him, to make sure of having enough to keep his wife and Kitty from freezing in the coming awfulness of the night, which now settled down upon the storm-beaten and snow-blinded world.

It was the beginning of that terrible storm in which so many people were frozen to death, and Jones had fled none too soon.

When once the wood was packed by the stove, Jones looked around for Kitty. He had no more than inquired for her, when father and mother each read in the other's face the fact that she was lost in the wild dashing storm of snow.

So fast did the snow fall, and so dark was the night, that Jones could not see three feet ahead of him. He endeavored to follow the path which he thought Kitty might have taken, but it was buried in snow drifts, and he soon lost himself.

He stumbled through the drifts, calling out to Kitty in his distress, but not knowing whither he went. After an hour of despairing, wandering and shouting, he came upon a house, and having raised on the door he found himself face to face with his wife.

He had returned to his own house in his bewilderment.

When we remember that Jones had not slept for two nights preceding this one, on account of his mortal quarrek with Burton, and had now been beating an arctic hurriname, and tramping through treacherous billows of snow for an hour, we cannot wonder that he fell over his own threshold in a state of extreme exhaustion.

Happy for him that he did not fall bewildered on the prairie, as many another poor wayfarer did on that fatal night.

As it was his wife must needs give up the vain little searches she had been making in the neighborhood of the shanty. She had now a sick husband, with frozen hands and feet and face, to care for. Every minute the thermometer fell lower and lower, and all the heat the little cook stove in Jones' shanty could give, would hardly keep them from freezing.

Burton had stayed upon that forty acre lot all day, waiting for a chance to shoot his old partner, Jones. He had not heard of the arrival of Jones' wife, and so he concluded that his enemy had proved a coward and had left him in possession, or else that he might play him some treacherous trick on his way home.

So Burton resolved to keep a sharp lookout. But he soon found that impossible, for the storm was upon him in all its blinding fury. He tried to follow the path, but he could not find it.

Had he been less of a frontiersman he must have perished there, within a furlong of his own house. But endeavoring to keep the direction of the path, he heard a smothered cry, and then saw something rise up covered with snow, and then fall down again. He raised his gun to shoot it, when the creature uttered another wailing cry so human, that he put down his gun and went cautiously forward.

It was a child!

He did not remember that there was such a child among all the settlers at Newton. But he did not stop to ask questions. He must without delay, get himself and the child, too, to a place of safety, or both would soon be frozen.

So he took the little thing in his arms and started through the drifts. And the child puts its little icy fingers on Burton's rough cheek, and muttered "Papa!" And Burton held her closer and fought the snow more courageously than ever.

He found the shanty at last, and rolled the child in a puffalo robe while he made a fire. Then when he got the room a little warm he took the little thing upon his knee, dipped her aching fingers in could water, and asked her what her name was.

"Kitty," she said.

"Kitty," he said, "and what else?"

"Kitty," she answered, nor could he find out any more.

"Whose Kitty are you?"

"Whose Kitty," she said. For she had known her father but that one day, and now she believed that Burton was he.

Burton sat up all night and stuffed wood into his impotent little stove to keep the baby from freezing to death. Never having anything to do with children, he firmly believed that Kitty, sleeping snugly under blankets and buffalo robes, would freeze if he should let the fire subside in the least.

As the storm prevailed with unabated fury the next day, and as he dared neither take Kitty out nor to leave her alone, he stayed by her all day and stuffed the stove with wood and laughed at her droll baby talk, and fed her on biscuit, fried bacon and coffee.

On the morning of the second day the storm had subsided. It was forty degrees cold but knowing somebody must be mourning Kitty for dead, he wrapped her in skins, and with much difficulty reached the nearest neighbor's house, suffering only a frost-bite on his nose by the way.

"That child," said the woman, to whose house he had gone, "is Jones'. I sed 'em take her outen the wagon day before yesterday."

Burton looked at Kitty a moment in perplexity. Then he rolled her up again and started out, "traveling like mad," the woman said, as she watched him.

When he reached Jones' he found Jones and his wife sitting in utter wretchedness by the fire. They were both sick from grief, and unable to move out of the house. Kitty they had given up for buried under some snow mound. They would find her when spring should come and melt the snow cover off.

When the exhausted Burton came in with his bundle of buffalo skins, they looked at him with amazement. But when he opened and let out little Kitty, and said—

"Here, Jones, is this yer kittin?"

—Mrs. Jones could think of nothing better to do than to scream.

And Jones got up and taking his old partner by the hand said, "Burton, old fellow" and then choked up and sat down, and cried helplessly.

And Burton said, "Jones, old fellow you may have that forty acre patch. It come mighty nigh makin' me the murderer of that little Kitty's father.

"No! you shall take it yourself, cried Jones, "if I have to go to law to make you."

And Jones actually deeded his interest in the forty acres to Burton. But Burton transferred it all to Kitty.

That is why this part of Newton is called to-day "Kitty's Forty."

Who is She?

Who is the girl Helen Blazes? to whom the boys so often appeal in sudden pain or peril's darkest hour? A day or two ago a young man trod on a piece of orange-peel, and sat down on the pavement, at the same time exclaiming, "Helen Blazes!" And that same afternoon the young man struck his toe against a brick, and taking his foot in his arms, he, too cried "Helen Blazes!" There may be such a patron saint of hurt in the calendar, but we can't find her there.—Courier-Journal.

In Memoriam

There is something sublime and touchingly beautiful in the death-bed scene of pious grandsire combined with christian symplicity. Such a one has just closed with Gen. H. G. Spruill, who departed this life June 20th 1874 at his residence in Halifax County.

His life began and ended during an eventful period of our national history. He took a deep interest in the welfare of his country, and at different times held offices of trust and responsibility in his native State. His perfect self control, his truthfullness, his keen discrimination, and his thorough knowledge of the leading questions of the day, commanded the attention and respect of those with whom he was associated, even when holding a different opinion from him.

As a writer, tho his name was not heralded by the trump of fame yet he was not unknown in literary circles. His writings were sincere, earnest, impassioned and distinguished for their eminent practicalness. His clear judgment, unhesitating freedom, and play of humor, illustrated truth with unerring precision, producing rare and distinct impression for good. Those who were honored by his correspondence will treasure as a sacred legacy the lessons of practical common sense, fervant piety and fervent resignation inculcated by him.

In the domestic circles he excelled. As a station none could have been more devoted and tender. As a friend, he was candid and generous. His, rejoiced knowledge of the world made him an able councelor and safe judge. There was about him a frankness and genuility which put him at ease in society, and a cheerfulness and benevolence of feeling that seemed to ray out from him, diffusing a pleasurable sense over those around him.

But it was as a christian that the true beauty of his character shone. Tortured for years by an incurable disease, deprived measurably of the companionship of the outer world, restricted to his family, his books and his pen, he exhibited his richest graces in the ungarded intercourse of private life. With patient fortitude and calm resignition except when agonizing pain wrung from him groans not to be restrained. He bowed submissively to the Divine will, giving unqualified evidence of his faith and confidence in God. His transition to the clear sky above was a glorious change from the sufferings of this clouded earth.

The Death of Gov. Caldwell—Particulars of His Death—His Last Moments.

Gov. Tod R. Caldwell died at Hillsboro Saturday evening at fifteen minutes to six o'clock. He left this city in apparent good health Thursday and that morning he was in the stockholders meeting at Hillsboro. Death no doubt was on him then. About two o'clock that day he saw Maj. Tom Cain on the street and told him that he didn't feel well, that he got a drink of mean water at Durham and it made him sick. The Major asked him home where Col. Ruffin lives and he said he would go. When Mr. Cain got home that evening he found Gov. Caldwell reclining on one of the divans complaining of pains in the stomach. Dr. Haywood of this city was there and he gave him some simple prescription. But the Governor continued still to suffer and all night he raged in a perfect storm of agony and Maj. Cain and Col. Ruffin were up with him the whole night. On Friday at 10 o'clock Dr. Pride Jones came in and told the Governor that he certainly ought to have a doctor. Dr. Jones went down town and sent out the Drs. Strudwick whose skill all treatments was immediately given the case. The Governor ate no thing but only drank milk. Friday evening the pain seemed to be allayed and the Governor thought he was better and so thought all his friends, but the physicians knew better, for his pulse was getting weaker. Friday night at ten o'clock Dr. Strudwick sent for Dr. E. Burke Haywood of this city the Governor's private physician. There being no telegraph office at Hillsboro, Mr. A. W. Graham mounted a mule and rode 14 miles to Durham to send the telegram.

GOVERNOR CALDWELL'S LAST HOURS.

Saturday morning the Governor looked bright and comfortable. He said he felt so. The special train arrived about 10 o'clock bringing Dr. Haywood, Mr. Parham, the steward of the Yarboro, came with the Governor's letters and papers. The Governor was glad to see Parham and told him to put the papers on the bureau, but to lay the letter on the bed and he would read it after awhile it would rest him.

His mind seemed clear and his strength was wonderful. He was continually falling into fitful naps that would last about five minutes. "Ah the hour" before he died they had him up on the floor and Maj. Tom Cain, his wife's brother, took hold of his arm to help him back to bed and the Governor said to him, "Never mind, Tommy, I think I can walk back more comfortably by myself." But he did do it, putting one knee and hand on the bed and then bringing his other knee and he fell over in the bed and exclaimed, "Now I feel more comfortable." About three or four o'clock that evening he said to Mr. J. G. B. Routhac, "The people all say I am going to die," and then after a short pause he said, "I tell you what you do you go and leave me and I'll go to my room and take a nap." He turned over and slept very pleasantly for about five minutes. About a half an hour before he died he asked Mr. Routhac to lift him up in bed and said, "If you don't lift me up I will get up myself." He lifted him and propped him with pillows and the Doctors being present, he went down stairs to take a smoke, absenting himself about twenty minutes he found Governor Caldwell lying on on his back and breathing as gently as an infant. Dr. John R. Ruffin, a son of Judge Ruffin, was holding his pulse. In a very few minutes he had fallen asleep in death without a stir or the move of a muscle. The Doctors say that his whole system was po

THE ISSUES OF THE CANVASS.

The issues for the present political campaign in this district are made up, and the candidates for national and county honors selected and are now submitting their respective claimns for election to the consideration of the voters.

It must be admitted, by all candid men, that the selection of candidates, by the Republican party, for the various positions to be filled, is without an exception well made—capable, experienced and in every way worthy the confidence of the people. And with men of tried fidelity to present for the sufferage of their fellow citizens, and the grand old platform of the Republican party to stand upon, there can be but one issue out of the contest, and that another triumphant success.

Let us briefly review the situation. On the one side we have for our more important positions, tried and faithful men, upholding the principles of truth and progress, and justice to all men. On the other, gentlemen of little or no experience in the positions to which they aspire, with no principles to commend them to the confidence of the people, except, perhaps, the effete dogmas of ancient Democracy.

The Republicans go to the polls not only to elect men of their choice, but in their selection to maintain and reiterate their confidence and fidelity to the principles that have developed a new era in our national progress. It is not a question with them of simply occupying an official position, but the banner under which our political regeneration has been wrought out is to be upheld and kept unfurled until all the great cardinal principles of the party are fully and irrevocably secured.

With the opponents of our regularly nominated standard bearer it is a question of office, of personal agrandisement; without a platform or a single principle in unison with the aspirations of the people. Did a political party or faction, ever before, go into a canvass with nothing to commend them to the favorable consideration of the people, but the battle cry of office and spoils alone, and secure anything but their own defeat?

We want office. We have no deffinite or concerted plan for the improvement of the people or of the country. We are earnestly opposed to the parties now in office, because—— we want their places. We are afraid if we are not elected now we will never again have an opportunity of tasting the sweets of official ease and dignity."

Is there any one to be led off from sustaining the platform that has done and is now doing so much for the country, to follow the noisy but empty pretensions of a few disappointed aspirants for office, who have no better reason to give for their office seeking propensities than, that it is time that we had a change in our representatives? Not that they have done anything we can seriously condemn, but if they should be continued in their present condition they might do some thing we could not approve. Are these reasons that should for a moment influence any thinking voter? Have our representatives in any way disappointed us? Have not the interests of all our people, irrespective of party, been carefully and efficiently guarded and protected? Are we not deeply indebted to our representative in the National Legislature for many substantial advantages already received, and to our chief judicial officers for intelligence and prompt administration of justice and the good order, peace and security of the whole community? Can we ask more? Could we expect as much from our opponents?

THE PLYMOUTH CONVENTION.

The "bolters" are in the habit of telling the people that the Convention which nominated Hon. C. L. COBB for Congress was composed of delegates, a decided majority of whom were "Federal office holders." Now what are the facts? Below we give a list of the counties represented, the number of delegates from each and the number of them holding Federal office.

Counties	Number of Delegates	Fed. office holders
Beaufort,	7
Bertie,	8
Camden,	5
Currituck,	2
Dare,	5	3
Gates.	5	1
Hertford,	4
Martin,	11	1
Pitt,	5	1
Perquimans,	9
Pasquotank,	12	2
Tyrrell,	5	1
Washington,	13	2
	92	11

This is the list. Eleven out of ninety two! and one of the eleven—from Tyrrell—was the noisest RANSOM man in the Convention. Is it any wonder an old philosopher once exclaimed "Oh how this world is given to lying."

The trouble with these malcontents is they were foiled in their nice laid plans and schemes—fairly beaten at every step, and unwilling to submit to the will of the majority, like the leaders of the Southern Rebellion, they seceded. The American people rose in their majesty and strength and preserved the unity and integrity of the nation. So in this instance, the Republicans of the First District are girding on their armor and on the 6th of Augus will gloriously vindicate and preserve the unity and integrity of their grand old party.

THE ECONOMY OF A RAILROAD.

The average cost of transportation by railroad is estimated to be one and one fourth cents per ton per mile; the average charge including loading and unloading a little less than three cents, per ton per mile. At this rate of charge for corn, the price per bushel, from Elizabeth City to Norfolk, (the distance being about 42 miles by the line of the railroad) would be, (42 x 3 =) $1,26. per ton, of 36 bushels, or three and a half cents per bushel. The amount of corn shipped from this county will average, from one year to another not less than 400,000 bushels and the average cost of freight when sent to Norfolk about six and a half cents per bushel or an aggregat cost of $26,000 or $12 000 more than the same amount would cost by railroad.

The amount of corn raised annually in these five counties, is not far short of 2,000,000 of bushels, and the surplus shipped to market about 1,5000,000 bushels. The present cost of transporting corn to our nearest market—Norfolk—is for the whole district, not less than seven cents per bushel. The average distance by rail from these counties on the line of the E. C. & N. R. R. will be about 45 miles. This distance would give an average charge for freight of (45 x 3=) 1,35 per ton of 36 bushels, equal to three and three-fourth cents per bushel.

The present charge of seven cents make an aggregate cost for shipping corn of $150,000, or a saving of $48,750, an amount equal to the interest, at 6, per cent, or over $800,000.

Now it would be reasonable to suppose, that if any practicable plan could be devised by which our debt ridden farmers could be relieved of the payment of the intrest on over three-fourths of a million of their combined debts they would grasp the plan with avidity, and that they would exteud a hearty co-operation to the full extent of there ability. If the railroad was to cost these counties $8000-000, which it will not, only about $200,-000 being asked from them, they would still be very largely the gainer, for from the above, it is shown that the whole of amount is saved annually, on one of our crops alone. When we add to the amount of saving on our cotton, vegetables' fruits, fish &c the value of the railroad to us is almost incalculable.

GOVERNOR BROGDEN.

The Republicans of North Carolina have been peculiarily fortunate in the selection of their two highest State officers. In Gov. CALDWELL they had an earnest, capable, honest man. He made a good officer. In his death the mantle of office fell upon CURTIS H. BROGDEN. He too is an able and honest man. Having had large experience in public life, and in every position performing his full duty, he goes into the executive chair with the confidence of the people that he will fill the functions of his high office with an eye single to the public good. We believe him to be a man thoroughly imbued with the true spirit of progress and that he will exert his influence to advance all the great interests of the State. In this we promise him the full and hearty co-operation of the NORTH CAROLINIAN.

At the ensuing election five ballotboxes will be required at each polling-place one each for Superintendent of Public Instruction; Member of Congress; Judge and Solicitor, Senator, Representatives in the General Assembly and all county officers, including Clerk of Superior Court. Tickets to be on white paper, without device.

At no time perhaps has the opposition shown so little regard for the truth as during the present political campaign.

OUGHT THE REPUBLICAN PARTY TO BE BEATEN!

We sometimes hear the association from despondent and croaking and "bolting" Republicans that the party needs the discipline of defeat. There is as little sense or truth in this as there is in the constant assertion of our opponents that our party has outlived its usefullness. A politicsl party cannot be said to outlive its usefulness so long as it maintains a compact and powerful organization, displays a capacity to administer the affairs of the country with honesty and vigor, and keeps itself in full sympathy with the times by taking advanced grounds on current issues.

Now there is no one who will deny that the Republican party fills all these conditions. A man has not outlived his usefulness for to-morrow because he has finished his work of to day, nor has the Republican party exhausted its capacity to deal with new issues by settling old ones. Equally silly is it to say that the party needs the discipline of defeat. If there were anything purifying or renovating in defeat, the Democratic party ought to be the purest and most immaculate party that existed, for it has certainly had defeats enough. It has lived on them, or under them, for the last fifteen years, and it is as far from perfection as ever. In fact it seems to be "getting no better fast." So far as its principles and morals are concerned, it has not been at all refined by the fires through which it has passed, and the "sweet uses of adversity" have been invariably lost upon it. It is the same in kind and worse in degree. Its promises of reform are most ravishing to the ear, but its performauces are hideous and disgusting. There is nothing in the condition of the Democracy to justify a very large amount of faith in the disciplinary value of defeat, for it is not a particle more worthy of trust now than it was in the days of JAMES BUCHANON and JEFFERSON DAVIS.

The silly notion that the Republican party needs defeat probably springs from the equally false and absurd idea that it has been rendered corrupt by its long lease of power. Nothing could be more untrne. Tnat there are some bad men in the Republican party, and that some of them succeed in getting into office is undeniable; so there are bad men in all human organizations, and will be until the millenium comes. But the masses of the Republican party are honest and the party itself true to the people, as it always has been. Its conventions, local and State, have taken most advanced ground in favor of progress and reform, its press has been unsparing in its denunciations of wrong doers and in every possible way the party has shown a determination to purge itself of dishonest men and keep faith with the people. If the Republican party is corrupt, the people are corrupt, for it is the party of the people aud its defeat would be a public calamity.

IMPORTANT FACTS.

Notwithstanding the financial panic of 1873 the Republican Administration has carried on the National Government most successfully. With the crushing effects of this panic and with the revenues largely diminished by the repeal of taxes it has, by vigorous economy, paid all demands upon the Treasury and reduced the public debt nearly Five Millions of dollars for the fiscal year just closed Nor is this all. The Republican Congress, resolved upon all possible retrenchment, has cut down the appropriations for the next year by the large sum of Twenty Seven million of dollars. These are facts that cannot be denied. And they speak volumes in favor of the party in power.

COBB IN MARTIN AND BERTIE.

An intelligent gentleman who has been traveling through the counties of Martin and Bertie and who at different points heard Mr. COBB, Maj. LATHAM and Dr. RANSOM writes us a long letter, but we only have room for the following extract.

I have heard Mr. Cobb both in Martin and Bertie. I am frank to confess that before I heard him I was inclined to believe some of the charges made against him. I can now however say to everybody that in reply to these he made such an open, frank and full refutation that no one went away without a perfect understanding of his position.

The speeches of Latham and Ransom were restricted to attacks upon Mr. Cobb and neither of them seemed disposed to utter a word against the other. These two gentlemen are conducting a bitter warfare against Mr. Cobb and are cheek by jowl with each other, eating, sleeping and riding together. You can say to all of our friends that Mr. Cobb's majority in Martin and Bertie will be largely increased over that of 1872. You can put down in your calculations Martin 200 majority for Cobb and 600 in Bertie county. It may be more.

Sometime ago the NORTH CAROLINIAN in urging his claims for renomination published a letter from a Northern Radical which stated that the Hon C. L. COBB was the best friend of Civil Rights in Congress.—Albemarle Times.

Brother WINSTON you have just entered the profession. Do not degrade yourself and journalism too by publishing such falsehoods. No such letter ever appeared in the NORTH CAROLINIAN. A letter from an old Northern frieud who had visited the National Capital and who, from fellow Members, Senators and Heads of Departments, had learned Mr. COBB's status in Washington, was published. Not a word was said about Civil Rights. But he did say that from these sources he learned that Mr. COBB was one of the most useful and efficient Members of Congress from the South. Do "tell the truth and shame the Devil."

The news of the probability of success for the Republican party is of daily reception, and it needs but a closing up of ranks, dropping the bolters, and do our duty, and we will carry North Carolina by ten thousand majority.

Remember that a vote for THOS. R. PURNELL, our candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction, is a vote on the side of law and order, in favor of good schools, and in the interest of the peace and prosperity of the State.

The advocates of Maj. YEATES dilate upon his political firmness and consistency. All this may do to "tell the marines" Intelligent, thinking people don't forget. They remember the story of the Judgeship. When his "hankering after the flesh pots" began his earnestness and zeal for the Democratic cause was at low tide. Bnt the Republicans happened to pass him bye. He did'nt get the office. Then it was when all hope from that quarter was gone, that he became a vehement Democrat. At each election since he has been a candidate for office! No, the people don't forget.

In the early part of the canvass the Democrats thought they had a "big thing" in the Civil Rights bill. But they are now heartily sick of it. They are in the predicament of the Californian and the bull. He fastened his lasso around his body then threw it around the neck of the bull. Said he: "For the first half mile I thought I had the bull; after that I began to find that the bull had me." Their lamentation now is

If two years ago we had'nt been such fools
As to vote for Greely and his mixed schools,
We now might make, at least, a decent show,
And give what would'nt prove a recoiling blow

Laboring men, ye who "earn your bread by the sweat of your brows," when has the Democratic party ever helped you? Can you point to a single act of their legislation that has ever benefited your class? Notwithstanding their ignoring your interests in the past they have the effrontry to appeal to you for your votes. Answer that appeal by voting for the Republican party—the only party that has ever done aught to guard and protect the interests of "the sons of toil."

We do not claim that there have been no corrupt men in office under the Republican Adminstration, for scores of Democrats have crept into our party and into office. But we do say, and the record proves it, that the Republican Administration has done more to get rid of and punish these scoundrels than any administration that has preceded it There is as much integrity in public officials to-day as at any hour since we had a Government.

Few men who have been in public life six years have made a better record than Hon. C. L. COBB. He has proven his fitness and capacity and fidelity. It is always safer to select a "tried man and true" than to take one who has never been tested. And this is another of the reasons why the people will vote for COBB in preference to YEATES.

That Maj. YEATES is a genial, social, clever gentleman all freely admit. But he can't go to Congress from this District His Elizabeth City speech settled "his hash," The people say that "COBB is the man" and everybody knows that their will must be respected.

Let the colored people of North Carolina remember, that if ever the day should come when Democracy shall control, the tinkling of the bells of the corporation clocks can prescribe their liberties.

Uniting and consolidating—the Republicans of this entire district. They intend to meet the enemy in solid phalanx and to overwhelm them with defeat as usual.

Poor men of North Carolina! What has the Democratic party ever done for you? And yet they ask your suffrage to place them in power!

The First District never falters. When the time of trial comes it is as true to principles as the needle to the pole.

Now certain of success—the Republican Senatorial ticket. Vote for WHITE and OVERMAN.

Losing ground every day—the bolter's movement.

CORRESPONDENCE

The Canvass in this County.

To the Editor of the North Carolinian:

The candidates for Senatorial honors spok in this place on Friday last. Elihu A. White Esq., opened the discussion in an able and eloquent speech. He pointted out in forcible terms the many inconsistences of the Democratic party; spoke scathingly of the infamous gerrymander of the Senatorial districts, and gave his competitors a most severe drubbing on the Civil Rights Bill. Space does not permit me to give even a synopsis of his speech. It was very effective throughout and elicited frequent bursts of applouse. He was followed by Mr. W. B. Shaw, who rehearsed in a gruff monotone the various defalcations of revenue officers nnder Grant's administration—said he constitution of the State was damnable—charged that the University of North Carolina under republican management had spent ten thousand dollars upon the education of Jno. P. Overman and John Q. A. Wood, and then took his seat, to the evident relief of his Democratic friends, who clearly saw he had "put his foot into it." Mr. John P. Overman then took the stand, and in an argument of rare power proved that the party of his competitors was not only without principles, but was inconsistent, corrupt, and bitterly hostile to the best interests of the people. He took up the speech of Mr. Shaw point by point, and answered it so fully and conclusively, as well as severely, that even the political enemies of that gentleman pitied him profoundly. It is the unanimous testimony of those present that no man was ever "used up" worse than poor Shaw. Mr. T. R. Jernigan closed in a speech of fifteen minutes. His remarks were mainly addressed to the ladies present. If it was his intension to do a little courting in public he succeeded very well. If however his object was to make votes, we are obliged to couple his efforts with that fatal word, failure. Major Yeates being present was called out by his friends, and told anecdotes for fifteen minutes. Arguments are beneath the notice of the Democratic candidate for Congress. As Yeates took his seat, Mr. W. F. Pool was called by the Republicans to the stand, and in a short and spicy speech picked the corpulent Major as if he had been a fat goose. The Republicans went home jubilant, hurrahing for Cobb, White and Overman. Look out for 100 majority in old Nixonton.

CONVERTED DEMOCRAT.

Nixonton, July 27th 1874.

From Tyrrell County.

COLUMBIA, N. C., July 21, 1874.

To the Editor of the North Carolinian:

The largest and most enthusiastic meeting ever assembled in Tyrrell County met here to-day to receive the Hon. C. L. Cobb, the republican candidate for congress in this district, to hear him on the current political questions of the day. Tyrrell County is the home of Dr. Ransom who is the bolters candidate for congress in this district. It was thought by the friends of Mr. C. that this county would present a formidable array of Republicans against his reelection, but the result has demonstrated far differently. Cobb was met by an enthusiastic and hearty greeting that was sur, rising to everybody. The Republicans of Tyrrell County were out to a man and gave him a reception hearty and enthusiastic. His speech was received by all parties present with an acquiescent good will, and whole souled endorsement.

The Republicans of this county without exception are zealous and emphatic in their support of our regular nomjuee for Congres and we shall give him an increased vote this time, we only hope that in the six counties beyound the sound his vote will be as flatering as it will be here.

QUIS.

To the Public.

Having been informed that Mr. Moore, of Edenton in a public speech in Elizabeth City said: "that Oliver F. Gilbert told him that he, Chamberlain, knew that Cobb had $16,000 in money at Plymouth and was ready to pay $1,000 for the vote of each county, to secure his nomination. I wish simply to say this: Mr. Gilbert is mistaken.

J. L. Chamberlain.

South Mills, N. C. July 24th 1874

Hon. C. L. Cobb.

We have received a circular addressed to the voters of the 1st District, by the Hon. C. L. Cobb, who has for several sessions represented his people in the United States Congress. Disclaiming all intention to dictate to his constituency in their choice of a representative, we feel satisfied that they could not do better than return Mr. Cobb to the seat which he has so long filled with credit to himself and usefulness to his country. In our repeated visit to Washington we have had occasion for noting his conduct, and unhesitatingly pronounce him one of the most vigilant, active and laborious workers in the House—ever watchful of the interests of those he more immediately represents, while ready to render assistance to his countrymen from every part of the Union who seek his counsel. —Ashville Pioneer.

Civil Rights.

The great cry of the Democrats, during this campaign, is Civil Rights. as if the election of August 6th, would have any influence upon that question. It would make no difference if every Republican candidate for Congrrss be in favor, or against, Civil Rights.—The question is before this Congress, and not the next; and must be decided one way or another, at the coming session, which will commence the first Monday of December. The issue, therefore, is not a practical one, and all that is said, for or against, is worse than useless. — New North State.

The Rev. John Allen, well known as "Camp-Meeting John," opened a late term of court, as follows, with this prayer: "O Lord, help us to pray for the lawyers: for thou knowest they have abundant need for prayer. They too often try to make a good case out of a bad one, and a bad case out of a good one. O Lord help them to be honest. And help, too, the witnesses. Thou knowest O Lord, that sometimes they stretch the truth and keep back what ought to be made known. Help them, O Lord to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth."

We rejoice to hear that Col C. L. Cobb will carry his district against both of his competitors. There should be no division among Republicans in Col. Cobb's district. He is one of the leading members of Congress, and one of the most useful men in that body.—North Carolina will lose much of her influence in Congress if Col. Cobb should be defeated. The state at large is interested in his success.—New North State.

A man named Swisher visited the daughter of a man named Castlet, at Ripiay, Mass., without consent, Swisher shot the father and ran away with the girl. The brother pursued, when he too was shot and killed.

An old story tells us how an illiterate sailor, being about to ship on board Her Majesty's ship Gargon, spelt out the name backwards and retired in disgust at the idea of serving in a vessel which had "No Grog" written on her bows.

A Cincinnati reporter says there is something grand in a pair of runaway horses, but we beleive that a good deal depends on whether a man is on a fence or trying to climb over the end board of the wagon.

The "white man's party" is already played out; the thing would not work, and the only peg upon which they could hang a hope for success has been knocked away. 'Twas ever thus.

When your pocket-book gets empty and everybody knows it, you can put all your friends in it and it won't bulge out worth a cent.

'I come to steal,' as the rat observed to the trap. 'And I spring to embrace you,' as the trap replied to the rat.

Josh Billings says, 'Success don't konsist in never making a blunder, but in never making the same one the seckond time.'

A gentleman in Wilmington has a canary which is 31 years old. It was brought from Cuba long ago.

A boot-black's father says he never enjoys himself more than when he see the 'son shine.'

Questionable—When a man marries a poetess, does he take her for better or for verse?

Iron in the Blood

PERUVIAN AN IRON TONIC SYRUP

MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.

The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protoxide of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "a thousand ills," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damages and waste, searching out morbid secretions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.

Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.

See that each bottle has PERUVIAN SYRUP blown in the glass. Pamphlets Free.

THE DAILY GRAPHIC

The only Illustrated Daily Newspaper in the World.

With its issue for March 4, 1874, THE DAILY GRAPHIC entered upon the second year of a career phenomenal in the history of journalism. Its story of a twelve months has been a steady and unquestioned growth in popular acceptance as the most original, artistically luxurious, and wonderfully comprehensive metropolitan journal ever published in the United States.

As a brilliant novelty, the whole country has confessed its unique attraction; as a practical and marvellously complete Newspaper, it has become a daily necessity to the social and mercantile interests of one of the largest permanent constituencies ever attained by a journalistic enterprise in the same period, while its great specialty, beyond all rivalry or hope of competition, is

A SUPERB PICTORIAL MIRROR
OF
DAILY HISTORY,

has been the wonder, delight, and new education of individuals and homes in every State of the Union. In the very idea of such utilization of the finest pictorial art, for every day's information and reflection, there is all the charm of a romance; and the realization of it at idea made visible in THE DAILY GRAPHIC, is a practical and ever-varying assimilation of the most fascinating Ornament with the commonest Use which never palls upon even the most pampered taste. From the first issue the successive multitude of its pictures has been a perfect study of mechanical and journalistic development; the inevitable early imperfections of artists and others, not yet thoroughly trained in the new process, disappearing steadily in an as steadily increasing accuracy and beauty of artistic effects. Indeed this very illustration, from day to day, of the Times's spirit of progress in Art, as well as in Events has been an added and piquant interest, which is yet to be maintained for the public by unending future "Graphic" improvements. Scarcely more, however, for its beautiful portraits, trenchant cartoons, vivid news-etching, and unequalled reproductions of the world's choicest works of art, than for its unrivalled attractions as

[illegible]

NEWS, SOCIETY, AND LITERATURE, has THE DAILY GRAPHIC been nationally recognized and popularly welcomed. Its genuine editorial independence, wide sweep of intelligence, ever-varying department of literary and personal interest, sparkling correspondence and pungent criticisms, makes it as much a favorite in the sanctum of the great Western or Southern or Northern newspapers as in the counting-room and the family circle.

THE DAILY GRAPHIC is an Eight-page Paper, published every afternoon (three editions), in time for the early mails to all parts of the country.

THE DAILY GRAPHIC has a larger average circulation—more copies printed and sold each day—than any other evening paper in New York excipting only the [penny] News.

THE DAILY GRAPHIC is a great newspaper, as well as the only illustrated daily paper. It has special correspondents everywhere, and it has a larger staff of writers and news-gatherers than any other evening paper in New York.

THE DAILY GRAPHIC is preserved for binding by hundreds of its readers in city and country. The annual subscriber gets a Pictorial History of the Year; a volume of twenty-four hundred pages, constituting a valuable record of events and a graphic panorama of our time and progress.

THIS WEEK'S ADVERTISEMENTS.

No 67 Nags Head.

Local and Personal.

Acknowledgement.

Resuming the tri-pod this week we acknowledge our indebtedness to WALTER F. POOL Esq. for his able conduct and efficient management of the NORTH CAROLINIAN during our recent protracted illness. He has proven himself to be an accomplished writer, falling as naturally into the editorial routine as though he had been born for the work. Mr. POOL is an able lawyer, and is one of the rising young men of Eastern North Carolina.

THE EDITOR.

☞ If you want to be on the winning side voted for C. L. COBB.

☞ We call special attention to the change of schedule of the Steamer Harbinger to Nag's Head.

☞ KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE, that YEATES and the other Democratic candidates, voted for GREELEY, who was in favor of mixed schools.

☞ J. L. CHAMBERLAIN will speak at Kelley's Grove, Camden county, on Saturday Aug. 1st., and at Old Trap on Tuesday August 4th.

☞ The Democrats are boasting and predicting victory as usual. Pay no attention to it. They did the same thing in 1870 and failed. They repeated it in 1872 and were again beaten. They are false prophets.

☞ Letters continue to pour in upon us from all over the district, covering us with a perfect deluge of good news. Republican camp fires are blazing from a thousand stations, and the war cry is COBB and victory!

☞ KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE, that the Democrats voted for CHARLES SUMNER for governor of Massachusetts, after he had introduced the Civil Right bill. They now say Republicans are in favor of the bill, in order to deceive you and get themselves in office.

☞ We hear that our friend J. Q. A. WOOD Esq., of Perquimans will be elected by an overwhelming majority. He is a young man of ability and energy, and will wear gracefully whatever honors our sister county may bestow upon him.

☞ The rains of the past two weeks are improving the crops greatly. We are informed that never was there a finer prospect of a most abundant crop of corn and cotton in this part of the State than at the present time. If ever a people had reason for being thankful to a kind Providence it is ours, and now.

☞ Anonymous communications we never notice. We treat newspaper writers whose articles, though appearing as editorial, have no acknowleged paternity in the same way. Scribblers of this sort cannot provoke recognition, notice or reply from us. Firing from ambush may be convenient for them. We countenance no such warfare.

☞ The Pamlico is the finest Steamer plying our waters, and Capt SOUTHGATE is the Prince of Steamboat men. His boat is large, roomy, has all the modern fixtures and conveniences and splendid state rooms, and he is unremitting in his efforts to make every passenger entirely comfortable. The Pamlico leaves Elizabeth City for Nag's Head every Wednesday morning.

☞ When it is remembered that the leading "bolters" canvassers are defeated aspirants for office it is a little "too thin" for them to profess to the public that they are "fighting for principles." So badly beaten, with no hope of ever getting a regular nomination, they are trying to ruin where they cannot rule. They can do neither.

☞ No one attempts to deny that Judge ALBERTSON is a man of great ability. That he has been fair and impartial on the Bench even his opponents concede. Then why make a change? Are we to gain anything? Certainly not. Then rally on election day and let us keep what we have got—an able and an impartial Judge.

☞ The "bolters" are declaring that the Plymouth Convention was a packed one. What are the facts? The delegates were sent from the people in regular county conventions assembled. Their credentials were submitted to a committee in which RANSOM and MOORE were represented by their ablest and most trusted friends—men of their own selection. That committee reported unanimously upon every delegate admited to the convention. So like all their other guns, this one too is spiked.

☞ Upon the subject of our county politics we have said but little, simply because we have not deemed it necessary. Our people understand the issues, are acquainted with all the candidates and are prepared to vote intelligently. Our own views are known as to the duty of Republicans supporting the ticket. The names of the regular nominees of the party appear at the head of our paper. The only safe way to maintain party organization is to "vote the ticket from top to bottom." We have no quarrel with any man. Let each citizen vote as his best judgement dictates and may the Right triumph.

☞ We are asked to copy from the Wilmington Star the card of Col WADDELL reflecting upon the veracity of AUG M MOORE Esq. We decline. We have repeatedly refused to publish communications severely criticising his past and present political conduct. And yet he complains! No man can truthfully say that we have ever treated him unfairly in our paper. Our aim and purpose has ever been to try to do right.

☞ Hon. C. L. COBB will spend his time from now until th election in canvassing the counties of Tyrrell, Hyde and Pamlico. His published appointments elsewhere will be filled by his friends. He thinks it best for his own interest and for that of our candidates for Judge and Solicitor to pursue this ourse.

☞ WALTER F. POOL Esq is doing effective service in the good cause. His speeches are able, logical, unanswerable. He speaks at Harrelsville to-morrow, at Winton on Friday and at Gatesville on Saturday August 1st. The hours of speaking is at 12 o'clock. He also speaks at Edenton on Monday August 3d at 11 o'clock A M.

☞ The new postal law which went into effect last week, places the rate of all printed matter or merchandise, not exceeding four pounds, one cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof. No package weighing over four pounds will be carried. The pre-payment of postage on papers to regular subscribers is not required until January 1, 1875.

☞ WILLIS BAGLEY, our candidate for Solicitor, is making a gallant canvass. He had already proven his ability at the Bar, but in this campaign he is demonstrating extraordinary strength and power on the stump. In logic and argument he is proving more than a match for his competitor, as clever in both as the latter confessedly is. BAGLEY is the man. Vote for him.

☞ The excitement and interest absorbing the attention of the people in the political canvass will soon be over. Then we can have time to attend to other important matters—things effecting our material interests. Among these is the Agricultural Fair. Very soon there will be a meeting of the Executive Committee and the programme for the Fair publicly announced.

☞ To our friends on the other side of the Sound we send news of encouragement and cheer On the general ticket, and especially the Congressional, there is now no dissension or division in our ranks. We'll meet you at the Sound with a much better vote than we did two years ago. Do as well as you did then—and from reliable reports we believe that you will—and when the sun goes down on the 6th of August we can unite in shouting VICTORY!

☞ There is a newspaper published at Washington, this State, called the Echo. On general topics it has considerable vim and sprightliness, but its political editorials have a sort of Rip Van Winkle flavor. It appears to be the echo of those rusty politicians who have made no advance but who, for the past decade, have been going round and round like a blind horse in a cotton gin. They are sufficiently profound on issues that were alive in the remoter periods of our history, but blind as bats to those of the living present. It is hard to convince those old bourbons that in politics, as in all things else, there has been tremendous progress. They will persist in discussing dead abstractions instead of investigating the topics now attracting the attention of the public mind and which are really interesting the people. They are joined to their idols and we suppose must be "let alone."

☞ When T. R. JERNIGAN Esq., wrote the able article for the NORTH CAROLINIAN to which we have referred, we had every reason to believe that he was earnest and sincere. It was just the kind of advice we had a right to expect from an honest Old Line Whig who had got his eyes fully opened to the real situation of national affairs. The argument was strong and convincing and it struck a sympathetic chord in our own breast, for we sprang from Old Whig stock—the grandest party of its day. It was to convince his fellow Old Line Whigs that both duty and patriotism demanded that they should henceforth co-operate with the Republican party. The anathemas against the Democratic party and the appeal to leave it seemed to come from an honest heart. But what are we to think of him now? He has accepted the candidacy for State Senator from that same party! It hasn't changed. Like the leopard, its spots remain the same. Its record and its history, like the shirt of Nessus, will stick to it forever! And JERNIGAN is now trying to defend it!!

☞ We have spent the past week at the Hotel at Nag's Head and have been greatly benefited. It is certainly one of the most delightful watering places in the U. S., and we must say that the Hotel under its present management, is one of the best we ever stopped at. Messrs PERRY & WOOD are unremitting in their attention to guests and their table is supplied with the best of everything. They have a good Ice House, and a complete Bakery attached to the establishment. Their cooks are first class—cannot be exceled anywhere. The waiters are courteous polite and attentive, and the Clerk Mr. GRAVES, is doing his level best to please. Every evening the Ball Room is graced with beautiful ladies and gallant gentlemen who "trip the light fantastic toe" to the very best of music. On every Sabbath there are religions services in the morning by the Episcopalians and in the evening by the Methodists. Everything is running with system, and everybody is satisfied and enjoying themselves. To all who desire a healthful summer resort, and a good Hotel to stop at we say go to Nag's Head.

☞Remember that August 6th, tomorrow week, is election day. Have you registered? See to it.

☞ Hon. C. L. COBB is speaking every day on the other side of the Sound and reports reach us, with telling effect.

☞ Those who during the past few seasons traveled to Nag's Head on the Steamer Harbinger will be agreeably surprised on taking a trip on her now. She has been thoroughly overhauled and completely refitted and is now a comfortable boat. Nor is this all. Her speed has been wonderfully increased. Instead of consuming 7, 8 and sometimes 9 hours making the trip to Nag's Head, as was her usual time heretofore, she now makes the trip in five hours and thirty minutes. The Harbinger is under the command of Captain C. W. JESTER, a gentleman who understands his business and who attends to it. He is prompt to the minute—always strictly on time. The Harbinger will make an excursion trip to Nag's Head from Elizabeth City on Saturday August 8th and return on Monday. Let there be a full crowd. For particulars see bills.

☞ Major YEATES spoke here on Saturday Our young townsman W. F. POOL Esq. asked permission to participate with him in discussion, and suggested these terms; that he should lead off in a speech of thirty minutes: that YEATES should reply for one hour or one hour and a half, that he should rejoin one hour, and YEATES should close in a speech of thirty minutes. This offer was rejected by Major YEATES, who proposed these terms; that POOL should make the first speech 1 or 1½ hours long, and "develope his whole case" that he should reply the same length of time; that POOL should rejoin twenty minutes, and he should close in a speech of twenty minutes. This proposal was rejected by Mr. Pool, who did not consider it a fair division of time. It is plain that Major YEATES was by no means anxious to meet our friend in discussion. The "skinning" he got at Nixonton made him cautious.

☞ In our sick room last week we had decided, when our strength returned, to pay our respects to those Democratic papers of the District that had been giving us such especial attention during this canvass. But after a week's reflection we have concluded that probably the defeat they are so sure to experience in a few days will be rebuke and punishment sufficient. For us to add additional infliction would cause them to exclaim with an offender of the olden times: "My chastisement is greater than I can endure." So in our magnanimity we forbear. As to the "bolters" who have traduced us, we feel like saying: "Inasmuch as you are only injuring yourselves we charitably give you this advice: Don't expose your soiled linen to the public. Have it washed in your back yards and there hang it up to dry. Have some respect for the proprieties and you'll be the more respected. We havn't the time nor space to waste on you now."

☞ Some ignorant or wilfully mendacious persons have charged that ELIHU A. WHITE Esq, as Treasurer of the Edenton and Suffolk railroad corporation received $50,000 in bonds for which he has never accounted. The statement does not even contain the semblance of truth. The act authorizing the issue of the bonds was declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court, as appears in their report; and the report of the Treasurer of N. C., shows that not a single bond was ever issued under the act at all, or went into the hands of anybody. We ask the people of the district to examine the matter for themselves, and if what we have stated is untrue let them go to the polls and vote for JERNIGAN and SHAW. If what we say is true, let them rebuke this shameless and slanderous lying on the part of Democrats, by voting for WHITE and OVERMAN.

A BRILLIANT RECORD OF CURES.—An American humorist tells us that it would have been money in his pocket if he had been born without a stomach, and then proceeds to figure up the cost of a chronic dyspepsia, to which he is a martyr, and which he says it is impossible to cure. On this point, "Josh Billings, (for he is the party referred to) is mistaken. Unless his stomach differs from all other dyspeptic stomachs Hostetter's Bitters will cure him in less than three months. This it would be safe to guarantee under any penalty. There are a few, a very few, actual specific or disease in existence, and Hostetter's Stomach Bitters may be set down as one of them. In cases of indigestion it never fails. persons who had suffered for many years almost every conceivable species of torture from this agonising complaint, have been permanently cured with the Bitters in six weeks. Hundreds of such instances are on record, authenticated by the testimony of prominent men in every walk of life, eminent physicians among the number. But this celebrated vegetable preparation is something more than a stomachic and tonic. It is also an alterative of wonderful virtue In liver complaint its effect is as direct and immediate as that of calomel or blue pill, and for more salutary and lasting results. All diseased conditions of the bowels, notably in cases of constipation, its regulating properties are in the highest degree serviceable. The new settlements in the west and all low-lying tracts of country infested with intermittent exhalations, so fruitful at this season of the various types of intermittent fevers, should be always well stocked with this incomparable remedy which will cure any case of fever and ague in a period varying from three days to three or four weeks, according to the violence of the complaint. Nervous disorders which are always aggravated by the adulterated liquors usually prescribed by physicians, are readily cured by a course of this admirable combination medicine a—which the properties of a stimulant, a tonic and laxative are happily blended.

"WE AND OUR NEIGHBORS"

is the latest and raciest work by
HARRIET BEECHER STOWE,
Author of "Uncle Tom's Cabin,"
"The Minister's Wooing" "My Wife and I,"
and other powerful stories, each the literary sensation of its period; and this story promises a like genuine and Wholesome sensation; It bears directly on social topics of interest, embracing the romance of youthful companionship the brightness of happy home life, the spicy complications of neighborhood association, and such follies and profound domestic experiences have led to the widespread Temperance movement of the day.

Mrs STOWE is now in the prime of that genius which wrote "Uncle Tom," ripened by years of study and observation. Her novels are immensely popular, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" alone out-selling by hundreds of thousands any edition of any original work ever published—save the Bible. Her book two years "My Wife and I," outsold every contemporary Such a pure and ennobling story as "We One Neighbors" should be read in every home This attractive Serial is just beginning publishing in the

Weekly Family Newspaper

Good agents wanted

The immense circulation of the Christian Union has been built up by active canvassers. No other publication compares with it for quick and profitable returns. The public eagerness for Mrs. Stowe's new story, the popularity of the paper, the friendly support of thousands of old subscribers, the artistic premiums for immediate delivery, light outfit and complete "instructions" to beginners, assure repeated success to agents, and offer active, intelligent persons unusual chances to make money. All who want a safe, independent business write at once for terms, or send $2 for Circular outfit to J. B. FORD & Co., New York, Boston, Chicago, Cincinnati, or San Francisco.

Save Your Own Seed.

Every intelligent tiller of the soil will admit that "whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap." If one sows or plants inferior seed, he cannot expect a bountiful crop of either roots or grain. Small and half matured kernels of wheat, oats, rye and corn, cannot be expected to yield large panicles and ears filled with plump and heavy kernels. If one plants the seed of carrots, parsnips, turnips and cabbage, which grew in the small pods and the half mature pani on the slender stems, he cannot produce large roots, even if the soil has been brought to an excellent state of fertility.

This suggests the greats importance of saving seed of the choicest quality. It will cost no more to raise one thousand bushels of beets or turnips, per acre, than three hundred, if plump and heavy seed has been properly saved.

In order to produce large, heavy seed of good vegetables, select a few large roots, a few turnips, parsnips and beets, and plant them in rich soil early in the coming season. They should be planted at least thirty inches apart, that the tops may have ample room to spread. When the blossoms begin to appear, clip off all the small side branches, leaving only four or five central stocks, which will yield seed of much better quality than one can usually purchase. Every kernel of such seed when planted, will produce a large root. Turnips and carrots may grow in proximity; but turnips and carrots designed for seed should be transplanted several rods apart. One cabbage will yeild as much seed as one family will care to plant, unless a crop is grown for market. A superb head should be transplanted as it grew The top of the head should be cut open, so that sprouts or seed stalks may readily spring up through the centre.

As soon as the the panicles of carrots and parsnips begin to turn brown, and when the pods of cabbage and turnips begin to lose their green color, let the stalks be cut off close to the ground and hung up in some out building. When the pods, leaves and stems are quite dry, let them be spread on a clean floor, or on a large blanket, and the seed threshed out either with a flail or by crushing the pods with one's feet

In order to have large and early tomatoes, the first ripe fruit should be allowed to hang to the vines until the seeds are fully matured. By selecting seed in this manner for a few years, tomatoes will come to maturity much earlier than in the ordinary way, and every stalk will be loaded with fruit.

The melon, squash, cucumbers and pumpkin that ripens first, should be allowed to hang to the vines until the stems are quite dry; then, when they begin to decay, remove the seeds, spread them on a board or canvas to dry. The vitallity of such seeds is frequently destroyed by too much solar heat, or by being scorched beneath the kitchen stove.

Flowers will be maturing their seeds at different periods through the entire growing season. The seeds of some flowers will ripen in June, while others will not ripen till September or October. It will require but a few minutes to attend to the cultivation and gathering of all the seeds one may need, if he will attend to the little matter at the proper time.

A Valuable Recipe.

The Journal of Chemistry publishes a recipe for the destruction of insects which, if it be one half as efficacious as it is claimed to be, will prove invaluable.

Hot alum-water is a recent suggestion as an insecticide. It will destroy red ants, black ants, cockroaches, spiders, bed bugs, and all the crawling pests which infest our houses. Take two pounds of alum and dissolve in three or four quarts of boiling water; let it stand on the fire till the alum dissappears; then apply it with a brush, while nearly boiling-hot, to every joint and crevice in your closets, bedsteads, pantry shelves, and the like. Brush the floor in the crevices of the skirting or mop boards if you suspect that they harbor vermin. If in whitewashing a celling, plenty of alum is added to the lime, it will also serve to keep insects at a distance.

Cockroaches will flee the pain which has been washed in cool alum water. Sugar barrels and boxes can be freed from ants by drawing a chalk mark just around the edge of the top of them. The mark must be unbroken, or they will step over it; but a continuous chalk mark half an inch in width will set their calculations at naught. Powdered alum or borax will keep the chinch bugs at a respectable distance, and travelers should always carry a package in their sac bags to scatter over and under their pillows in places where they have reason to suspect the presence of such bed fellows.

Use of Paris Green.

Permit me a few words about potatoes and the Colorado bug. The rascal has been troublesome for seven or eight years. Three years of that time the destruction of the crop was complete. Last year I prepared a piece of ground and planted with Early Rose the first of July. In two weeks they were fit for cultivation. I prepared a watering pot—the holes of which I had for the escape of the water being very small—holding ten duarts. into which I put a teaspoonful of Paris green, and sprinkled the potatoes once. The bugs were destroyed; and before another crop of bugs came, my potatoes were ripe, and for winter and spring use they could hardly be surpassed. No one here uses the drug in powder, but all in water.—L W L Belvidere Ill.

Cucumber Pickles

The old style of laying cucumbers down in brine, then when wanted for use soaking them out in a brass kettle to make them green, is tedious, and I think rather dangerous. Now; I have good, nice, solid pickles that were put down last summer, and the following is my method of preparing them: I pick from the vines, wash carefully, and wheu dry put them in good cider vinegar; tie a paper over the top of the jar; some seal them, but I have not. I like this way very much.

We don't suppose any of readers wish to dry off a fresh cow, but if there should be any, the way to do it, as given by the Country Gentleman, "is to feed the cow four or five quart of dry corn meal every day, and all the dry wheat straw she would eat. Two weeks of this diet, with care, in the milking so as not to let the udder be injured by over distention, dried off an Ayshire cow that could not be dried off in the ordinary way."

When a young farmer's wife made her first boy's pants precisely the same before as behind, the father exclaimed: "Goodness! he won't know whether he's going to school or coming home"

Commonly we say a judgement falls upon a man for something in him we cannot abide.—John Selden.

(J. N. H.).

Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of Vinegar Bitters?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of Vinegar Bitters in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, in Bilious Diseases.

If you will enjoy good health, let the use of Vinegar Bitters as a medicine, and avoid the use of alcoholic stimulants in every form.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Grateful Thousands proclaim Vinegar Bitters the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to Dr. J. Walker's Vinegar Bitters, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc., etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, Walker's Vinegar Bitters have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of Walker's Vinegar Bitters occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ringworms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics, will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Jaundice.—In all cases of jaundice, rest assured that your liver is not doing its work. The only sensible treatment is to promote the secretion of the bile and favor its removal. For this purpose use Vinegar Bitters.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

GEO. D. POOL'S COLUMN.

DESCRIPTIVE CATALOGUE.

OF VALUABLE

NORTH CAROLINA LANDS,

FOR SALE BY

GEORGE D. POOL.

Real Estate Agent,

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C.

In presenting my list of lands and other properties for sale, I would say that no section of the United States offers such inducements for capitalists and emigrants, as this section of North Carolina. In longevity and healthfulness, it will compare favorably with any where; and in easy and cheap transportation of produce to market, in pleasantness of climate, in the sociability of the people, in great fertility and durability of soil, no section can equal it.

A railroad will soon be built from Norfolk, putting this place in direct communication by Rail, with the whole United States. This, together with our great fishing, farming and manufacturing interests, and certain early completion of already projected works of improvement for putting in nearer, cheaper and easier communication with the Ocean, will render this one of the most important commercial, and manufacturing points on the Southern country.

A desirable house and lot in the town of Elizabeth City on the corner of two principal streets, the principal one, and situated in the best business locality in the town. The lot contains about two acres of land, and the buildings consist of a fair dwelling three stories high, containing eight rooms, all in good order, another two story building with four rooms and pantries, dairy, smokehouses, stables, &c. The dwelling has a good cellar under it. There is room on the front lot to erect two good stores, and they would occupy the best stand in the town for merchandize.

A farm of 700 acres in Pasquotank County 10 miles from town, with fine two story dwelling, large barn, kitchen and other outhouses; as also, two other dwellings. barns and other houses at different points on the farm. This farm is all cleared but 150 acres, is free from swamps and other waste land, and is well adapted to raising corn, wheat, cotton, oats, &c. The price is 14,000 in easy payments.

A farm of 500 acres in Pasquotank County, 6 miles from town, and one mile from the River, with good new dwelling built in modern style, barn, stables, four tenant houses scattered over the farm, fine water, &c. This farm is situated on the most public road in the County, has 300 acres cleared and balance in splendid pine, oak, cypress, maple, sweet gum, and other valuable timber. It is peculiarly adapted to raising cotton, $50 per acre, net, having been realized on a part of it this year in cotton. It also grows corn, wheat, oats, and other crops well. Price $12,000 in easy payments.

Two tracts of land lying on Pasquotank River four miles from town, neatly cleared, and in good cultivation, one contains 1,000 acres, and the other 600 acres. Both have good fisheries, and the land is equal to any in this section. Price $20.00 per acre in easy payments. Also several smaller tracts for sale, ranging from 50 to 100 acres each, at low prices, and on easy terms.

Also two fine farms in Pasquotauk county, 10 miles from E. City, within half mile of church. school house and post office. One tract contains about 400 acres, with fair buildings and mostly cleared, and the other contains 300 acres, with good two story dwelling, large barn, and other outhouses, both are offered at $20 per acre, one third cash, balance in one and two years.

Three farms—one of 100 acres, one of 80 acres and one of 190 acres, within two miles of town, mostly cleared land. Price $20 per acre for each tract—payments on easy terms. Also many other valuable farms and town lots too numerous to mention.

HEALTH AND BEAUTY!!

STRONG AND PURE BLOOD GIVES AN INCREASE OF FLESH AND WEIGHT TO THE SKIN AND BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXION TO ALL.

DR. RADWAY'S

Sarsaparillian Resolvent

THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.

HAS MADE THE MOST ASTONISHING CURES; SO QUICK, SO RAPID ARE THE CHANGES, THE BODY UNDERGOES, UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF THIS TRULY WONDERFUL MEDICINE, THAT

Every Day an Increase in Flesh and Weight is Seen and Felt.

Every drop of the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT communicates through the Blood, Sweat, Urine, and other Fluids and juices of the system the vigor of life, for it repairs the wastes of the body with new and sound material. Scrofula, Syphilis, Consumption, Glandular disease, Ulcers in the throat, Mouth, Tumors, Nodes in the Glands and other parts of the system, Sore Eyes, Strumorous discharges from the Ears, and the worst forms of Skin diseases, Eruptions, Fever Sores, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Acne, Black Spots, Worms in the Flesh, Tumors, Cancers in the Womb, and all weakening and painful discharges, Night Sweats, Loss of Sperm and all wastes of the life principle, are within the curative range of this wonderful of Modern Chemistry, and a few days' use will prove to any person using it for either of these forms of disease its potent power to cure them.

If the patient, daily becoming reduced by the wastes and decomposition that is continually progressing, succeeds in arresting these wastes, and repairs the same with new material made from healthy blood—and this the SARSAPARILLIAN will and does secure—a cure is certain; for when once this remedy commences its work of purification, and succeeds in diminishing the loss of wastes, its repairs will be rapid, and every day the patient will feel himself growing better and stronger, the food digesting better, appetite improving, and flesh and weight increasing.

Not only does the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT excel all known remedial agents in the cure of Chronic, Scrofulous, Constitutional, and Skin diseases; but it is the only positive cure for

Kidney & Bladder Complaints,

Urinary and Womb diseases, Gravel, Diabetes, Dropsy, Stoppage of Water, Incontinence of Urine, Bright's Disease, Albuminuria, and in all cases where there are brick-dust deposits, or the water is thick, cloudy, mixed with substances like the white of an egg, or threads like white silk, or there is a morbid, dark, bilious appearance, and white bone-dust deposits, and when there is a pricking, burning sensation when passing water, and pain in the Small of the Back and along the Loins.

Tumor of 12 Years' Growth Cured by Radway's Resolvent.

The Saturday Evening Post.

The Oldest and Best Story Paper Published.

Founded August 4th, A. D. 1821.

For more than half century the SATURDAY EVENING POST has been the

GREAT LITERARY WEEKLY

of the Country, and has ever born a widespread and unblemished reputation for the unsurpassed purity, refinement and excellence of of the Serials, Sketches and Miscellaneous reading matter.

It is pre eminently

THE BEST FAMILY PAPER

that is published in this county, from its never containing anything that would offend the feelings of any one, either in a religious or political sense, or that could not be read at any fireside without objection from the most fastidious.

The circulation of the Saturday Evening Post, though not quite so large perhaps, as its younger contemporaries, is not, like that of some of them, fluctuating. and too often short lived, but based upon the intrinsic merit of the paper itself, and not dependent on any extraneous influences, such as the popularity of individual writers, &c.

Good, however, as the Saturday Evening Post has been in the past, it is our intention to make it still better in the future, and with this object in view we will effect a marked improvement in every department of the paper and will call to our assistance writers of admitted ability and known reputation.

By increasing its former attractions, and adding many judicious and pleasing novelties by studying how to please and cultivate the popular taste, by increasing industry and enterprise, and by enlarged facilities, we hope to make new friends with each and every issue, and continue to maintain the claim of the Saturday Evening Post to its title of The Oldest and the Best of Family Story Papers.

THE GREAT BALOON.

You've heard about the great balloon,
In which Professor Wise
Proposed to go to Europe,
By sailing through the skies,
He proposed to show the people
A quicker way for trips
Than ever had been known before,
By sailing o'er in ships.

Well everything seemed lovely
Upon that Autumn day,
When they began to pump in gas
To bear the barge away.
They pumped and pumped with all their power,
And things seemed nigh adjusted—
When there came an awful crash,
And the mighth bubble busted.

It's ever thus in human life,
Go whereso'er we may,
The darkest night will oft succeed
The brightest, sunniest day,
There are exceptions to this rule,
Where all the days are fair,—
For one, go down to JOHNSON HALL,
You'll find things all right there.

We've thought it best in cases like this,
This little fact to mention;
You need not ferr that they'll inflate
Beyond their power of retention.
And when they undertake to go
Their geer's so well adjusted,
They'll move straigh forward to their work,
With no fear of being "busted."
